Open House at New Chamber Building Wed.

Bill Gunter, president of the Chamber of Commerce, announced today that "Open House" would be held at the new Chamber office on Wednesday, December 30th, between the hours of 10 a.m. and 7 p.m.

"Although the new office has been in use for the past 30 days, we did not feel that people would have the time to give to 'Open House' until after the Christmas rush," said Mr. Gunter.

The office is still located at the same place that it has been for a number of years but the recent remodeling program has provided much more space that was available before. The building occupied, is the property of the City of Hope and was at one time used as a Fire Station and Police Station.

The Fire Department moved out to its present location a number of years ago but the Police continued to use a portion of the building until about the middle of 1964, when they moved to their new quarters in the City Hall. Soon after the Police moved to their present location the City offered the additional space to the Chamber of Commerce.

Some plans were drawn for remodeling the building and a committee from the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors appeared before the City Board

Apparently It Is Taking the Little Woman More Time to Prepare the Frozen Dinners

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might not know if he didn't open his mail:

Someone has discovered — or at least claimed — that the average U.S. housewife spends 2-1/2 hours yearly in the kitchen. Whereas her husband, if he worked a 40-hour week, 52 weeks without vacation, would spend only 2,080 hours on the job. The only conclusion is that it is taking women longer and longer to thaw out those appetizing dinners.

And if someone gave you a million dollars in one dollar bills, what is the first thing you'd do? Count it, of course. And how long would it take you? Well, on a 40-hour week basis, it would take you seven weeks to find out how rich you were.

Russians spend half their earned income on food. Americans spend only 19 per cent — and are still too fat.

Here is a surprising fact that may have escaped your attention: Greek writing originally went from right to left, later one line went from left to right and the next from right to left, but after about 500 B.C. all lines went from left to right.

Quotable notables: "Life is a fortress," said Napoleon Bonaparte. Seneca, the Roman seer, said existence was "a state of warfare," and E.B. White described life as "a sentence that begins and ends with a yawn." The Bible says life is "a vapor that appeareth for a little time then vanisheth away," and Irving Berlin put it this way: "It is 10 per cent how you make it, and 90 per cent how you take it."

the kindness of Mother Nature? Why, of course, it is the human hand. A runner-up is the elephant's sensitive trunk, which contains 40 thousand muscles.

History lesson: Can you name the first U.S. president born outside the borders of the first 13 states that made our original Union? He was Abraham Lincoln, born in an area known then, and now, as Kentucky.

Odd legislation: Word has reached me that you can be arrested in Ohio if you seek to cool your feet by sticking them out of the window of a moving automobile.

Folklore: Only a poor man keeps one dog — a really poor man keeps at least two. Idiots are favored by God. A horsehair put in water will fester into a snake in six weeks. If you meet a barefoot woman as you start on a trip, turn back immediately or she will bring bad luck to your journey.

You are an unusual fellow if you can name seven forms of mammal life that chew their cuds. These are potential answers: cows, deer, sheep, emus, goats, giraffes and antelopes.

Snow Adding to Woes of Flooded Areas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A heavy snowfall blocked flood relief flights in Northern California today and prolonged the isolation ordeal of stranded refugees into an eighth day.

The colder weather did put a brake on rivers that had rampaged from the mountains into the Pacific and in the hardest hit area — Oregon and Northern California.

Nearly two feet of snow was reported in the Siskiyou Mountains, near the Oregon border, with continued snow forecast for the next 24 hours.

A force of 25 helicopters ordered to Yreka, relief operations center for Klamath and Salmon River refugees, could not take off from Stead Air Force Base in Nevada because of the storm.

The turn to cold dropped the snow level to 1,000 feet elevation.

The Columbia dropped enough in Washington to permit start of cleanup work. The flood threat appeared over in Idaho but the little town of St. Joe, population 75, in the Panhandle, still was without electricity. In Nevada the Truckee River withdrew its threat to Reno.

California counted 19 flood dead with the confirmation Sunday that four had drowned when a helicopter plunged into the Eel River 40 miles south of Eureka Saturday. Seven died in another California "copter crash" last Tuesday north of Eureka.

Oregon reported 18 deaths from flood action.

The Red Cross listed 16,300 families as suffering major losses to homes, businesses or farms in Oregon, California, Idaho and Washington.

No official estimate of damage was available, but rough guesses by leaders of relief and rescue operations put it at close to $1 billion.

Five-hundred persons — miners, loggers and their families — were marooned in several communities along the Klamath and Salmon rivers at the northern tip of California.

"They're beginning to run short of food," reported William Sowle, Civil Defense director at Yreka. A storm that dropped two feet of snow on Yreka Sunday halted helicopter flights in the area. The prediction was for continued snow today.

About 100 passengers on two Greyhound buses found themselves stranded by highway washouts last Monday after a lunch stop at the Terrace Gardens resort 10 miles south of Garberville on U.S. 101 in California's Humboldt County and about half of them still were awaiting rescue today.

Some walked or were lifted by helicopters to Garberville and others were flown to Eureka farther north. Those who stayed spent Christmas crowded into the resort's motel quarters.

"We were a little cramped," said Bill Flynn, a Greyhound representative who was among the marooned, "and while we weren't starving there was only enough food for us to eat twice a day — at 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. We didn't get fat."

Dr. Hesterly, 80, Prescott Native, Dies

Dr. Berry Hesterly, 80, a retired Prescott doctor and druggist, died Saturday in a local hospital. He was a lifelong resident of Nevada County and moved to Hope two years ago when he retired. He was a member of the Hope Presbyterian Church and an honorary member of the Arkansas Pharmaceutical Association.

Survivors include his wife, a daughter, Mrs. Frank McLarty, two grandsons, Mack and Berry McLarty, all of Hope; two brothers, Dr. J. B. Hesterly and Ernest Hesterly, both of Prescott and a sister, Mrs. Otha Stephenson of Conway.

Services were held at 10 a.m. Monday at First Presbyterian Church by Dr. L. T. Lawrence. Burial by Herndon-Cornelius Funeral Home, was in Rose Hill Cemetery.

Active pallbearers: Horace McKenzie, Frank Gilbert and Hervey Bernis of Prescott; Steve Marlar, W. L. Tate and Harold Stephens of Hope.

East German Tries to Escape, Shot

BRUNSWICK, Germany (AP) — A man trying to escape from East Germany was shot and probably killed this morning by East German border guards. West German border police reported.

The report said the East German guards spotted the man shortly after dawn and opened fire with submachine guns. He lay motionless in the snow for some time before the East Germans carried off the body.

Probe Brewing on Giveaway of U.S. Patents

By G. MILTON KELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new investigation is brewing in the Senate on charges that the National Aeronautics and Space Administration is giving away valuable patent rights which belong to the taxpayers.

Complaints by some Senate and House members picture NASA as signing away to business firms the rights to patents developed at public expense and worth untold millions of dollars. They contend a recent policy change made the situation worse.

James E. Webb, NASA administrator, has countered with a claim that the agency is following federal law and guidelines laid down by President John F. Kennedy shortly before his death.

The patents in question were developed under government-financed research contracts with commercial and other institutions.

A spokesman for a Senate Small Business subcommittee headed by Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., told a reporter it will meet shortly after Congress convenes Jan. 4 to consider senatorial requests for an investigation.

Long has been an outspoken critic of the differing patent policies employed by various government agencies under special laws.

Sens. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., and Lee Metcalf, D-Mont., both contend that the new NASA policy permits its contracting officers to negotiate patent waivers at the time they sign research contracts, thus giving away patent rights before even learning what they may be.

Morse has advised Long's subcommittee that this is contrary to both existing law and the Constitution.

The forthcoming Congress session also promises investigations on many other fronts. The financial dealings of Bobby Baker, alleged "snooping" on government employees by their bosses, and the controversial contract for the development and production of the F111 warplane—formerly known as the TFX—are among investigative problems awaiting the new Congress.

The House has a less busy schedule of probes ahead. Its main on-evil be a study of soaring costs of the new Sam Rayburn House Office Building. Originally intended to cost $10 million or less, it is winding up as a more-than-$95-million project—the costliest public building in history.

President Gives Top Priority to Foreign Policy

By KARL R. BAUMAN

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson boosted foreign policy to a top priority spot on his schedule today.

He also planned to get in more work on the federal budget and his State-of-the-Union message.

Associates said Johnson intends to devote considerable time today and during the remainder of the week to reviewing U.S. relations with nations around the world, including policy on loans, aid and cultural exchanges.

A source close to Johnson said he is closing out the year with a rather optimistic view of most of the problems in Viet Nam and the Congo.

He is known, for example, to feel that relations with the Soviet Union are less antagonistic than they have been at times in the past and sees fewer crises than have plagued the world in recent years.

He feels relations with Eastern Europe have improved and that the North Atlantic Alliance is in better shape than it has ever been.

Johnson is known to be pleased about what he regards as improved relations with nations of the Western Hemisphere, with Fidel Castro's Communist dictatorship in Cuba the major fly in the ointment.

As part of his efforts to bolster relations with various nations, the President is working on dates for visits from a large number of chiefs of state during the coming months. These visits are expected to average about two a month during the next year.

Fatalities in Arkansas Go Over 600

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—For the first time in the history of Arkansas, highway accidents have claimed more than 600 lives in one year.

State Police said Monday that 622 persons had died in the state's roads in 1964. That figure covers the long Christmas holiday weekend.

Last year at this time, 561 persons had been killed in Arkansas traffic accidents, and the 1963 total of 565 was the record.

Arkansas highway deaths climbed over 500 for the first time during World War II, when 504 died in 1943. It took 19 years for the death toll to reach that high again. The state's second year in which 500 or more died in highway accidents came in 1962, when 516 were killed.

State Police and local law enforcement agencies have issued several warnings about the alarming rise in traffic fatalities.

"It doesn't do much good, though," one officer said Monday.

Says Temperatures Should Be Warmer

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Weather Bureau says Arkansas should have warmer weather for what is left of 1964, and colder temperatures to start the new year.

Clear to partly cloudy weather was the rule today, with temperatures getting to the 40s in the northeast to around 60 southwest.

Lows tonight should be from the 30s northeast of the 40s southwest.

Sunday's highs ranged from the low 50s to the 30s, and it never got above 32 at Little Rock and Pine Bluff. A trace of rain was recorded at Harrison.

The Weather Bureau said there will be a warming trend until near the end of the week, when it will start turning cooler. Temperatures were expected to average 6 to 12 degrees above normal.

Overnight lows in the state were in the 20s and low 30s.

35 Years Since Woman Had Office

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. (AP)—

Mrs. Frances Modlin, first woman to hold political office in 35 years, will be sworn in Friday as county clerk.

Mrs. Modlin was elected to the post in a special election last Tuesday. She will serve out the term of her late husband Jimmy Modlin, who was killed in an automobile accident Oct. 26 at Little Rock while en route to the State Democratic Convention.

Here's a sample of what was in one of the 118 baskets of food distributed to needy families Christmas by Hope Lions Club: a ham, five pounds of flour, five pounds of sugar, pound of coffee, two pounds dried beans, two pounds of rice, four pounds of lard, two pounds of candy, a pound of nuts, five pounds of apples, five pounds of oranges, a fruit cake, a large can of pork and beans, two cans of evaporated milk, five pounds of corn meal, 10 pounds of potatoes, a pound of oleo plus 60 assorted cans of goods that had been contributed by Hope and Yerger High School students, and every child in a family received a toy.

Due to illness the Open House scheduled Monday, December 28, at the home of Tony Smith for the Hope High Junior Class has been postponed indefinitely.

Viet Nam Hits Rebels Blow But GIs Hurt

EDITOR'S NOTE—Free-lance photographer James Pickrell, wounded by the Viet Cong in November, was assigned by The Associated Press to accompany Vietnamese troops who overran a major Viet Cong guerrilla position Sunday. Here is his report.

By JAMES PICKERELL

DAI NGAI, South Viet Nam (AP) — Government forces overran a major Viet Cong position Sunday, killing at least 67 guerrillas and capturing 10 others as well as a large stock of weapons.

It was one of the most significant government successes in the past year. U.S. officers believed that the position, 75 miles southwest of Saigon, was a Viet Cong zone command headquarters. The Communists have divided South Viet Nam into seven zones.

The government forces suffered 11 dead and 42 wounded. Among the wounded were seven U.S. Army helicopter crewmen hit by small-arms fire.

(Ten other Americans were reported wounded in other actions in the Mekong delta Sunday. Two were reported in serious condition.)

Capt. Robert W. Butler of Frederick, Md., who went into action at Dai Ngai, said of the government success: "This is as good a Christmas present as I could have wished for."

A radio he had carried on his back was smashed by a machine-gun bullet. He was not hurt.

The attack began when militiamen in the rice land hamlet beside the Mekong River called for help after exchanging fire with the guerrillas.

Thirty-six helicopters, half of them armed with rockets and heavy machine guns, dropped on top of the Viet Cong position, discharging two battalions in seven quick waves. Air force planes poured bombs and cannon fire into the area. About 650 government troops took part.

Viet Cong strength was estimated at two battalions under the command of a major general. It was not known whether he was among the dead.

Government troops were still recovering bodies today as sporadic fighting continued.

The heavy Communist casualties were attributed partly to a new type of fuse on the government's bombs. These burst in the air and scatter shrapnel over a wide area.

Vietnamese officers speculated that the Communists had been massing for an attack and were caught off guard.

Captured weapons included five 50-caliber machine guns, three recoilless cannons and three mortars.

In the town of Mo Cai, 50 miles southwest of Saigon, a Viet Cong grenade exploded in a cafe, wounded four Americans and 15 Vietnamese and killed a 12-year-old Vietnamese girl.

One of the Americans, Van Bucher, the son of Jules N. Bucher of the U.S. Aid mission in Saigon, was reported in critical condition. Bucher is in his early 20s.

Lt. Gen. Nguyen Khanh, commander of the Vietnamese forces, issued a holiday message of thanks to U.S. forces in South Viet Nam. The message warmed a little the chilly relations between Khanh and U.S. authorities in Saigon.

As the new year gets under way, trouble spots erupt on the face of the world like a case of international smallpox. As leader of the world's leading nation, President Johnson and his advisors must summon all their initiative, energies and wisdom to cope with them. The widely scattered type boxes on Newsmap above underline the inescapable fact of life in 1965—that few things can happen anywhere in the world without affecting the national interests of the U.S. In his first "on his own" year, the President faces the task of protecting those interests.

Air Reserve, Guard Merger Plan Due Soon

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Air Force recommendations on merging the Air Reserve and the Air National Guard are due Jan. 25, it was learned today.

This is only six days before retirement of Gen. Curtis E. LeMay as Air Force chief of staff. LeMay is reputed to favor combining the 72,000-man Air Guard into the 182,000-man Air Reserve.

But there appears to be considerable high-level sentiment to accomplish the merger in the other direction — to eliminate the Air Reserve and leave only the Air Guard.

This was the pattern set for the Army on Dec. 12 when Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara announced that the Army National Guard would increase to 550,000 men by absorbing about half of the 300,000-man organized Army Reserve. The Army Reserve will disappear, except for a reinforcement pool.

Sources said studies on unifying the Air Reserve and the Air Guard still are not finished.

The Reserve Officers Association, which is fighting obliteration of the Army Reserve and the Air Force Reserve, has contended that the administration is waiting for LeMay to retire before acting.

Informed authorities challenged this, saying that LeMay had informed top officials that it would be impossible to finish the Reserve-Guard studies by Jan. 1 and that LeMay himself held to the Jan. 25 objective date.

The sources said the studies were ordered five or six months ago and the deadline assigned at that time.

At LeMay's insistence, a board which determines Air Reserve policy decided about a year ago that the Reserve and the Air Guard should be combined and that one organization should remain. The board did not take a position on whether the Reserve or the Guard should survive.

Officials who have been working on this problem said they had been unable to detect from LeMay any leanings either way.

The Air National Guard earned considerable praise during the Berlin crisis when it sent 218 fighters and reconnaissance jets, plus their supporting elements, to France and Germany within a month of being called into federal service in October 1961.

McNamara's emphasis, so far as the Guard and Reserve are concerned, is on quick reaction. The Air Guard and the Air to be considering the appointment of a large number of new ambassadors. It was indicated as many as 15 or 20 posts might be involved.

The State-of-the-Union message, the first of the "big three" messages going to Congress in January, is "pretty well bracketed out," a qualified source said, and the actual writing has been started.

Work also is well along on the budget, but some major decisions remain to be made by Johnson. These include the amount of money to be asked for what the President calls his "antipoverty program," whether to propose a pay increase for government civilian workers and the amount of an education package.

In a letter to Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara released for publication Sunday, Johnson said he wanted the last vestige of racial discrimination ended in the armed forces.

He told McNamara the Defense Department has "done an excellent job in resolving many aspects of the general problem of discriminatory treatment of those in the armed forces," but added:

"I would hope that the momentum already achieved... would continue until every last vestige of the problem is eliminated."

Holiday Yule Death Toll Reaches 550

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Traffic accidents throughout the nation during the three-day Christmas weekend took at least 571 lives and set yuletide records in several states.

The toll fell short of the 1955 record of 609 deaths, but within the range estimated in advance by the National Safety Council.

The highway deaths occurred in the 78-hour period between 6 p.m. Thursday and midnight Sunday. The council had estimated a toll between 550 and 650.

California had the highest toll of 59 deaths, followed by New York with 39, Michigan 36, Texas 34 and Pennsylvania 32.

Only five states — Alaska, Hawaii, Maine, Montana and Washington — reported no fatalities. In at least five states, holiday accidents helped set 12-month records.

While traffic deaths mounted at an alarmingly fast pace during the early hours of the holiday period, they slackened off during the closing hours, despite the homeward rush in many areas in fog, rain and snow.

Multiple deaths pushed the toll upward in several states.

In California, a three-car crash on rain-slicked U.S. 101 near Oceanside took five lives. Three persons lost their lives in a collision in Wisconsin Rapids and three others were killed in a smash-up in northern Illinois.

The three Wisconsin deaths plus five other fatalities there in separate accidents, helped set a 12-month record. The toll in Wisconsin now stands at 1,048 for 1964, well past the previous high of 957 in 1962.

Four other states also have topped earlier year-long records: Oklahoma stands at 773, compared to 762 last year; Minnesota has reported 819 deaths so far this year, breaking the old mark of 801 set in 1963; Colorado fatalities now total 551, compared to a record 508 in 1963 and Tennessee reports 1,046 deaths so far this year compared to 941 last year. DEAR ABBY

SIT OUT THE SIEGE!

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: My husband and I have been best friends with the couple next door for years. We play bridge together, we have taken trips together and our children play together. One night (a few weeks ago) the husband went to bed early, so his wife came over to watch TV with us. She went home around midnight, but forgot her house key and was locked out. Her husband, being a very sound sleeper, didn't hear the doorknob. She came over to our bedroom window (not wishing to awaken our children by ringing our doorbell), and shouted up to us to help her get into her house. My husband put on his bathrobe and went outside to try to find an open window in their house while I kept ringing their phone, hoping to wake up her husband. I finally succeeded and my husband was home in five minutes.

One of the neighbors must have seen my friend under our bedroom window, and watched my husband join her in his bathrobe, and now we find ourselves in the middle of a big scandal! Some say we've been switching mates for years. Others say this woman is trying to break up my home. Anyway, the talk is all over town and we are afraid our children might hear it from their playmates. I can't go up and down the streets yelling it isn't true. What can we do? We can't all leave town. We own our homes, our husband's jobs are here, and we can't afford to move.

INNOCENT VICTIM

Dear Innocent: Don't do anything. If you could afford to leave town, the move would only make you appear guilty. Worthwhile people neither believe gossip nor spread it. And the most wholehearted denial has yet to still one vicious tongue. Stay where you are and keep your sense of humor.

Dear Abby: I am disgusted with women. My husband plays with a well-known band. Women call him up and write to him from all over the country. Some of them are old enough to be his mother. I often travel with my husband and have actually seen women follow him to the door of the men's room! Any time now I expect to see one go in after him. Whatever happened to decent women?

LISA

Dear Lisa: Decent women are still with us, so don't judge the entire sex by the women you've seen chasing your husband. Musicians are constantly being pursued by man-hungry women, but those who don't want to be bothered need only to ignore the glances, messages and overtures as soon as they get the pitch.

Dear Abby: The letter from the mother of the 17-year-old boy, who tried to tell her that he should be allowed to stay out until midnight every night because "all his friends" could, fascinated me. I am the mother of five sons. My eldest (now married) tried the same stunt

Apparently U.S. Escapes Flu Epidemic

Associated Press Science Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Public Health Service predicts the nation will escape any big flu outbreak this winter.

There have been only a few local concentrations of Asian or other types of influenza so far this year. There probably would have been many more if a major epidemic were imminent, the service noted.

The agency again recommended vaccinations, especially for those in "high-risk" groups — pregnant women, the elderly and those with heart trouble or other chronic diseases.

In response to questions, health service officials said all signs indicate no widespread epidemic will hit the country, although there is always the possibility of localized outbreaks.

The present situation, they said, bears out forecasts made last summer by an advisory committee to the surgeon general.

In general, those forecasts were that the 1964-65 winter season shapes up as a comparatively light year on flu for two reasons:

1. As regards Asian, or type A-2 flu — the newest and most feared type in recent years — the nation suffered widespread outbreaks in 1962-1963; and the West Coast and parts of southern Minnesota were hit hard by the same virus last winter. The experts feel the betting averages are against another major outbreak so soon after those.

2. As for influenza "type-B" — another major form — widespread epidemics are relatively rare anyway. The United States was hit by a tough one as recently as 1961-62.

The American Medical Association gives this advice regarding flu:

Socialist Widens Lead in Italy

ROME (AP) — Deputy Premier Pietro Nenni, a Socialist backed by the Communists, widened his lead in the Italian presidential race today as Parliament took a 20th unsuccessful ballot.

Nenni's Socialists, the Communists and the small Socialist Party of Proletarian Unity joined to give the former Stalin Peace Prize winner 385 votes, his highest total since the unprecedented marathon balloting began 13 days ago.

Foreign Minister Giuseppe Saragat, a Democratic Socialist backed by the leaders of Italy's divided Christian Democrat party, slipped to 323 votes — 19 less than he received Sunday.

A total of 482 votes is necessary for election.

Engagement Announced

Miss Jeanette Hern

Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Hern, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Jeanette, to Phillip Rowe, son of Rev. and Mrs. Lacie Rowe of Hope.

The bride-elect is a Junior at the U of A and the prospective groom is a graduate of the U of A where he received his BS and Masters degrees.

They will attend Michigan State University in Lansing where she will continue her studies and he will be employed as a research technician.

The wedding will be solemnized December 29 in the home of the Bride.

Men in Viet Nam Simply Sent There

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon says the big bulk of the approximately 22,000 American military men serving in South Viet Nam are there because they were ordered there — not because they volunteered.

It adds that "no formal inducements" are being made to get volunteers to sign up for duty there.

When the United States began giving military aid to South Viet Nam four years ago, a substantial part — if not an actual majority — of the American military men who went over to help in the war against Communist guerrillas were volunteers.

In answer to a question, the Defense Department said today that now "most people of all services are assigned as individuals, with few exceptions."

These exceptions include, in addition to the individual volunteers, units which are deployed to the war zone. These include Army Special Forces outfits and crews of Marine helicopter units which are rotated on Viet Nam duty.

The Pentagon said that when volunteers for Viet Nam duty are qualified and there is a need for military occupation specialists, the volunteers are assigned before nonvolunteers.

Presumably, there are several reasons for the emphasis on ordering men to Viet Nam and the de-emphasis on relying on

Cotton Maid Contest Starts

MEMPHIS (AP) — The Maid of Cotton Contest began today for 20 young beauties vying for the honor of representing King Cotton around the world.

The Cotton Belt lovelies face a two-day schedule of interviews photograph session, pub-events through which the judges will observe their every act.

The girls are checked for such traits as personality, social poise, intelligence, modeling ability and—high on the list—family background. It's the nation's most sedate beauty contest with only the judges seeing the girls in swimsuits.

The new maid will tour the world as goodwill ambassador the cotton industry, opening her official activities with an appearance at the Cotton Bowl football game in Dallas New Year's Day.

The U.S. effort to assist the South Vietnamese government has been expanded several fold since 1961. Volunteers would be insufficient to provide the numbers and specialized skills required.

Not all of the U.S. Army, Navy, Marines and Air Force personnel in Viet Nam are eligible for the extra $55-a-month combat pay. This goes to volunteers and nonvolunteers alike in both South Viet Nam and Laos.

That directive specifies that for men to qualify they must be:

"Subject to hostile fire or explosion of hostile mines or in an area in which they are in imminent danger of being exposed to hostile fire or explosion of hostile mines; and in which during the period he was on duty in that area, other members of the uniformed services were subject to hostile fire or explosion of hostile mines."

The standard tour of U.S. servicemen in Viet Nam is 12 months when unaccompanied by dependents, 24 months for those with dependents.

Engagement Announced

Miss Jimmie Sue Louder

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lowder announce the engagement of their daughter, Jimmie Sue to Larry Paul Hooton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hooton all of Hope.

The bride-elect attended Hendrix College for 2 years and is presently a Junior at Arkansas State Teachers College, where she is majoring in Biology. Her fiancé is attending Henderson State Teachers College where he is a Junior with a major in Chemistry.

The wedding is planned to be January 29th in Hope.

Early Bird Launching $3.5 Million

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Communications Satellite Corp. — Comsat — announced today it will pay the government about $3.5 million to launch its "Early Bird" commercial satellite as soon as possible after March 1.

The contract, signed by Comsat and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, commits NASA to perform similar launchings at Comsat's option after July 1. Ultimately, the earth will be circled with satellites for a permanent system of telephone, message and television transmission.

The Early Bird will be placed in synchronous orbit — that is, "standing" at 22,300 miles altitude above a fixed spot in the Atlantic — with NASA providing the launch vehicle and services, telemetry and tracking data.

Once successfully in orbit, the satellite will be turned over to Comsat. If tests are successful, commercial service should start about two months after the launching. The target date for permanent, full-scale commercial service is 1967.

The contract calls for Comsat to reimburse NASA for "actual governmental costs incurred for launches, whether or not successful," the corporation said, and the payment per launch "is on the order of $3.5 million."

"NASA will also provide a backup launch in the event 'Early Bird' is unsuccessful," the announcement said.

Technically, three satellites of the high-altitude, synchronous type would suffice for global communications service — one each over the Atlantic, Pacific and Indian oceans. Comsat has indicated it would also need three standby satellites, to be launched in case an orbiting satellite fails.

Livy's famous History of Rome covered 142 books, but only 35 of these are in existence today.

Texas Tech No Match for Georgia Team

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer

While a quartet of seniors on Georgia's Sun Bowl winners looked forward to bright futures in professional football, storm clouds lingered over the Blue-Gray all-star game at Montgomery, Ala.

Armchair quarterbacks, meanwhile, savored the prospect of a television marathon New Year's Day and Saturday, when six classics — Rose, Cotton, Orange, Sugar, Gator and East-West Shrine — will be beamed nationally.

Ray Rismiller, Jim Wilson, Frank Lankester and Wayne Swinford signed National Football League contracts last Saturday after leading the Bulldogs past Texas Tech 7-0 in the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Tex.

The Philadelphia Eagles signed fullback Lankester, who scored the game's only touchdown on a two-yard plunge and 225-pound tackle Rismiller, their second-round draft choice. Wilson, a 215-pound tackle who spearheaded Georgia's tenacious defense in the Sun Bowl and was named the outstanding player in the game, and Swinford signed with the San Francisco 49ers.

Jim Zanios, Texas Tech's 210-pound fullback, agreed to terms with the Dallas Cowboys of the NFL.

At Montgomery, where Penn State quarterback Gary Wymann passed the Blue stars to a 10-6 victory over the Gray in the rain, game officials — facing a loss of prestige because of their segregation stand — pondered a possible lifting of the racial barrier which has cost them a national television contract.

A Blue-Gray source said Sunday he believes the future of the 27-year fixture will be insured only if Negro gridgers are invited to participate.

The National Broadcasting Co. discontinued its telecast of the game last year after officials refused to alter their racial policy.

Saturday's game, which drew a crowd of 16,000 and was televised regionally into six states on a special network, was a defensive battle decided by Wymann's 30-yard scoring pass to Bill Cronin of Boston College in the third period.

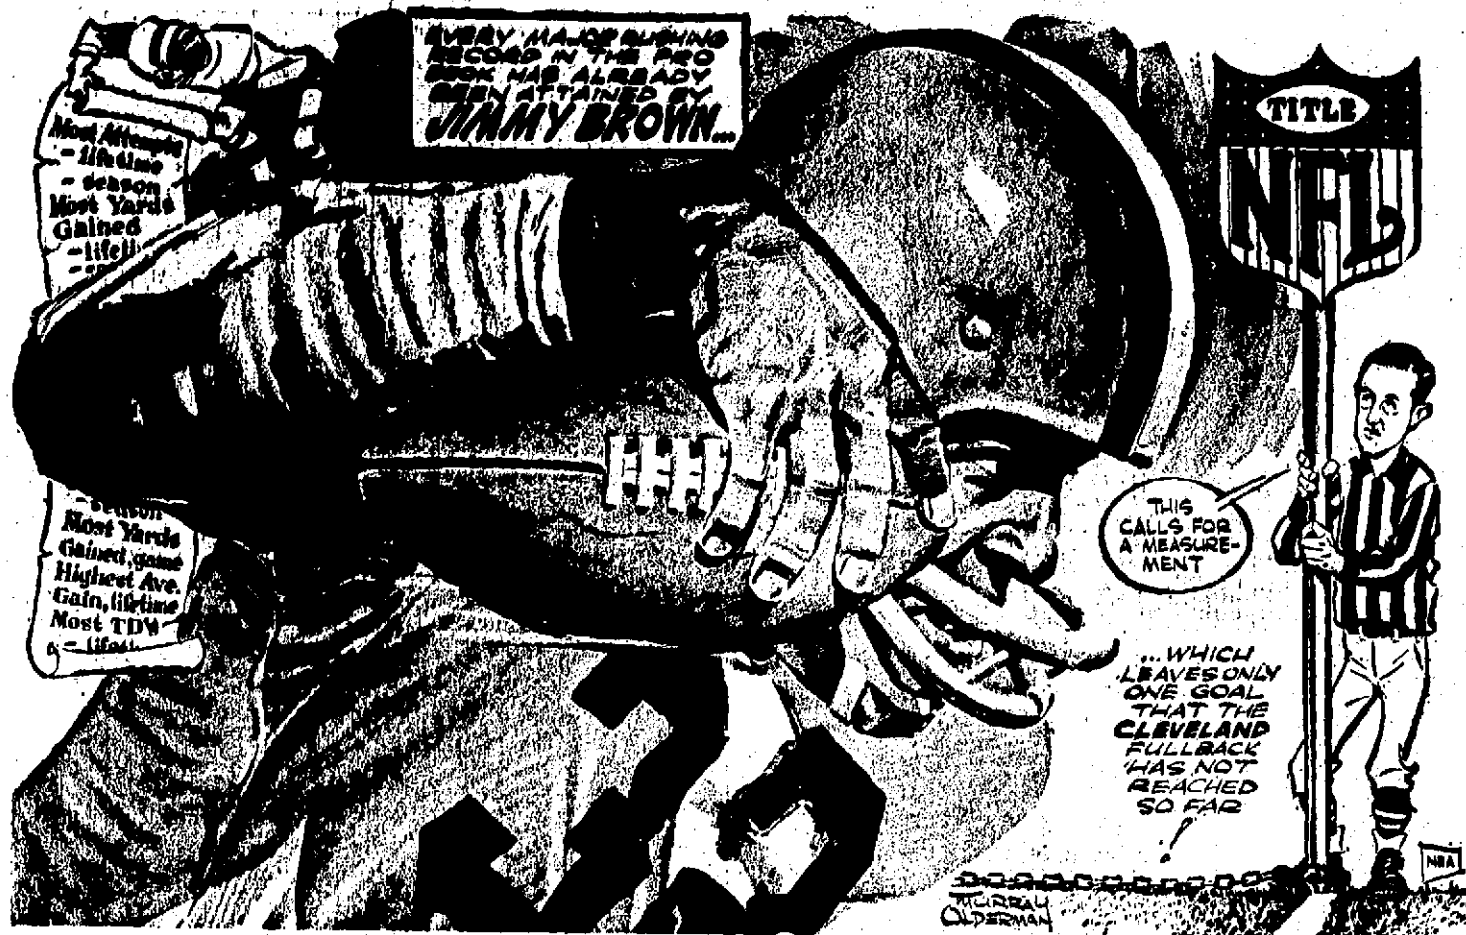

The Orange Bowl pairing of Texas and Alabama, the 1963 and 1964 national champion, respectively, heads the New Year's bill and completes an NBC triple-header. The Miami attraction, to be played for the first time after dark, has an 8 p.m., EST, kickoff.

The Crimson Tide, unbeaten in 10 regular-season games, and the Longhorns, winners in nine of 10 starts, follow an afternoon card that matches Louisiana State, 7-2-1, and Syracuse, 7-3, in the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans; Arkansas, 10-0, and Nebraska, 9-1, in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas and Michigan, 8-1, and Oregon State, 8-2, in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif.

The Sugar and Rose classics will be aired by NBC, starting at 2 p.m., EST, and 5 p.m., EST, respectively. CBS will carry the Cotton Bowl scrap beginning at 2 p.m. EST.

Florida State, 8-1, meets Oklahoma, 6-3-1, in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., and the East and West All-Stars clash in the Shrine Bowl at San Francisco on Saturday. The FSU-Southern game can be seen on ABC-TV, starting at 2 p.m., EST; the West Coast action, beginning at 5 p.m. EST, will be televised by NBC.

FINAL GOAL

Black Hawks Making Run in Hockey

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Three weeks ago, today the Chicago Black Hawks were running a bewildered fifth, in the National Hockey League race following a 4-1 setback to the visiting New York Rangers.

Neither club has been the same since — and the Rangers wish the tale of two cities never had begun.

In 10 subsequent starts, Chicago has tied one and won the rest, including Sunday night's 3-0 romp over Boston, New York, beaten 3-1 by Detroit in Sunday's other game, has managed one victory and one stand-off over the same 10-game route.

The Black Hawks' surge, which has lifted them within two points of the league-leading Montreal Canadiens, began when Bobby Hull finally got some help in the goal-scoring column. While the Black Hawk has continued his record pace — he caged his 29th goal in Chicago's 5-3 decision over Toronto Saturday night — his teammates have found the range too.

Hull didn't score against the Bruins — settling for three assists and a league-leading point total of 50 — but a trio of rookies, including Bobby's brother, Dennis, gave Chicago goalie Denis DeJory all the offensive help he needed.

Rookie Fred Stanfield broke a 2-2 tie early in the second period after Boston's Dean Prentice had knotted the score on a penalty shot. Dennis Hull, rookie Doug Robinson and John McKenzie completed the rout.

Baltimore Obliges Boston Celtics

SWC Cagers Have Busy Week Ahead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Southwest Conference will jam a lot of basketball into three days this week.

The teams are playing in tournaments—that is seven of them. The eighth member of the league, Texas A&M, which has the best season record, stays home to play Trinity Wednesday night.

Baylor opens play tonight at Greenville, S.C., in the Pointsettia Classic. The Bears meet Furman.

Rice, which hasn't yet been able to win a game, tackles Oklahoma City University in the All-College tournament at Oklahoma City.

Southern Methodist is in Memphis to play Memphis State in that school's tournament.

Tuesday Baylor, Rice and SMU continue their tournament play while four other conference schools swing into action.

Arkansas starts out in the Centenary Invitational at Shreveport clashing with Mississippi. Texas Christian is in the Sun Carnival tournament at El Paso battling New Mexico. Texas takes on Georgia in the Gator Bowl tournament at Jacksonville, Fla., and Texas Tech meets Vanderbilt in the Sugar Bowl tournament at New Orleans.

All action will be wound up Wednesday night and there will be no more basketball until Jan. 5 when the conference race opens.

5 Sun Bowl Players Sign Pro Contracts

By JIM IRWIN

Associated Press Sports Writer
EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — The Georgia Bulldogs, more noted for their defense than their offense, used ball control offense to advantage in scoring a 7-0 Sun Bowl football victory over Texas Tech.

Until Tech's lone drive in the fourth quarter Saturday, Georgia had controlled the ball for 66 plays to just 21 for the Red Raiders.

Among those 66 plays was the lone touchdown, a two-yard smash by fullback Frank Laskewicz, one of five players signed to a pro contract after the game.

The Georgia score came after a 53-yard swing pass from Preston Riddlehuber, a junior second-string quarterback, to halfback Fred Barber, who was nailed on the Tech six after he pulled a

Browns Take Baltimore for NFL Pro Title

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland has ended the rule of the West in the National Football League by exploding the myth of Baltimore's super-team on a grey, wintry Sunday afternoon.

When Frank Ryan, Gary Collins, Jim Brown and Co. finished rambling over the shocked Colts 27-0, they had exposed Johnny Unitas and Lenny Moore as ordinary mortals, not supermen.

Because Baltimore rolled to 11 straight victories in the West and wound up with a brilliant 12-2 record, the Colts had been installed as solid seven-point favorites to chase the Browns into Lake Erie.

The Colts' supermen were supposed to rush Ryan so fiercely that he would spend the day flat on his back, scanning the snow clouds overhead.

Baltimore's well-balanced offense was expected to shatter the Browns' defense, poorest in the league in the season statistics, and expose their pass defenders as inept pretenders.

To the contrary, Ryan was thrown for a loss only once. The mathematical wizard threw three touchdown passes and outplayed the great Unitas.

Collins set a playoff record by grabbing three scoring passes and Brown bulldozed the Colts' league-leading defense for 114 yards on 27 carries and also caught three passes for 37 additional yards.

Just to rub it in, 40-year-old Lou Groza kicked two more field goals and ran his point total to a record 49 in eight championship games.

All of this was a delight to most of the 79,544 fans in the vast wind-swept stadium on the lake front. In the final seconds, they demolished the goal posts at one end of the field while the officials let the final 26 seconds tick away.

The West had won six of the last seven title games and had humiliated the East by running up a 10-4 score in inter-conference play during the regular season.

Until the aroused Browns ended the string, the only Eastern triumph since 1956 had been Philadelphia's 17-13 squeaker over Green Bay in 1960. Detroit, Baltimore, Green Bay and Chicago all had taken turns, deflating the pride of the East.

Both Coach Blanton Collier of the Browns and Don Shula of the Colts, a unique teacher-student combination, had based their game plans on ball control. Each tried to establish — to use a coaching word — their ground game. Collier succeeded and Shula didn't. It was as simple as that.

After a scoreless first half, the Browns struck quickly for 17 points in the third quarter with the help of two short punts of 25 and 27 yards by the Colts' To Gilburg against a 20-mile-an-hour wind.

Groza's 43-yard field goal was the first blow. Then came Ryan's 18-yard scoring toss to Collins, the 6-foot-4 flanker from Maryland, and Ryan's 42-yard TD pass to the same powerful receiver.

When the Colts dug in and stopped the Browns on the goal line early in the final period, Cleveland had to settle for a nine-yard field goal by Groza.

Poultry Puts More Money Into Pockets

By JOHN R. STARR

Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas poultry industry — continuing to come back from 1961's near disaster — has put more than $200 million in the pockets of state producers this year.

The figure is an estimate. It is based on last year's $193,622,000 total and a projected five to 10 per cent increase in production.

The gain since 1961, when broiler prices dropped below 10 cents a pound and producers and processors did some soul-searching, is more than $50 million.

That $200 million total is an impressive figure for an industry that a dozen years ago was a hit or miss business, conducted mostly by small farmers trying to supplement their incomes.

Now 98 per cent of Arkansas' poultry is produced under contract which guarantees the producer's profit through a link with a processing company.

Many companies — the so-called fully integrated firms — handle every phase of the business from hatching to freezing. Others provide the farmer with chicks and feed and pay him a flat rate for the number of pounds he puts on the birds.

Arkansas still ranks second to Georgia in poultry reproduction

Sightseeing for Duke of Windsor

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The Duke of Windsor is expected to take a sightseeing drive around Houston early this week, his first outing since undergoing surgery Dec. 16.

He sat on the Methodist Hospital sun deck Sunday and spent much time reading and working in his room.

The former British king, now 70, underwent abdominal surgery for the removal of an aneurysm — or blister — on his aorta.

He plans to leave the hospital sometime this week.

Linebacker Key to Win by Buffalo

BUFFALO (AP) — Mike Stratton, 230-pound Buffalo linebacker, was the key man in two crucial plays that pointed the Bills to a 24-7 victory over San Diego and their first American Football League championship.

And on one of them it was all unintentional.

Both the losing coach and quarterback, Sid Gillman and John Rote, named Stratton's play as decisive in their reviews of the championship game Saturday.

"If I hadn't underthrown that pass in the second quarter, we might have gotten some kind of score and turned the game in a different direction," said Rote, a 36-year-old veteran of three professional leagues who had played his last game.

He referred to a first-down play in the closing minutes of the first half. Buffalo had a 13-7 lead, but the Chargers were driving from the Bills' 15. Stratton picked off a Rote pass to end the threat.

"If there was a turning point," Gillman said, "that pass interception was it."

"The loss of Keith Lincoln also hurt us. I would say, if anything, his loss helped Buffalo a great deal — we lost a lot of our football team when Lincoln was had taken a pass for 11 more. Then Stratton nailed him with a crushing tackle and the San Diego fullback lay writhing on the ground. He eventually made his way to the sidelines and was through for the day — a right rib broken.

"It was a fine tackle by a fine football player," Lincoln said. "I was disappointed because we lost, and also because I couldn't play."

"I just thought Keith had the breath knocked out of him," Stratton said later. "I never realized I had broken a rib."

San Diego, sparked by Lincoln, swept 80 yards on a touchdown drive the first time the Chargers got their hands on the ball. Lincoln accounted for the first 54 yards, including a 38-yard run, and Rote hit Dave Kocourek with a 26-yard touchdown pass.

"It jarred us quick," said Buffalo Coach Lou Saban. "It jarred us to our senses — it woke us up."

Pete Gogolak got the Bills back in stride with a 12-yard field goal. Wray Carlton slammed over for the go-ahead touchdown a few minutes later and the Bills were ahead to stay.

Jackie Kemp, who completed 10 of 20 passes for 188 yards, sneaked over from the one for the other Buffalo touchdown and Gogolak added another field goal from the 11.

Buffalo fullback Cookie Gilchrist, who carried 16 times for 122 yards and took two passes for 22 more, was non-committal over reports that he may retire.

"I can't make a statement like that," the 250-pounder said. "But I'd be happy to come back on the right terms."

and the gap isn't closing very fast. But Lex Killebrew, executive secretary of the Arkansas Poultry Federation, says Arkansas now leads Georgia in the number of inspected birds sent to market each year.

"This is because Arkansas is more conscious of putting out a quality bird," Killebrew says. He adds that much of Arkansas' production moves in interstate commerce where inspection is required.

For comparison purposes, Georgia placed 7,424,000 chicks to Arkansas' 5,271,000 during the week ending Dec. 12. Killebrew said the difference between placements in the two states is fairly constant on a percentage basis.

Arkansas produced 259,850,000 broiler chicks in 1963, the last year for which figures are available. This was 20 million more birds than in 1961.

The $200 million gross income figure includes commercial egg and turkey production. Fewer of the egg and turkey operations are integrated with the direct link between hatchery, feed supplier, producer and processor.

The average price per pound of broiler chicks has held steady during this year at a favorable 13.5 to 14 cents. This compares with the dark days of 1961 when the price ranged down around 11

Rankings in Arkansas High School Circles

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Little Rock Central won its only game of the week but dropped out of first place in The Associated Press rankings of high school basketball teams.

The Tigers beat Greene County 57-54 in a week which found most basketball teams inactive because of the holiday. North Little Rock moved into first place, however, with four first place votes and a vote total of 83.

Central held second place with three first place votes and 81 points. Fort Smith had three first place votes but collected only 77 points and held third place.

Tech gained despite the defeat by Central. The Eagles picked up 16 points and moved into 9th place. Lockburg fell out of the top 10 to make room for Tech.

Conway collected 14½ points and took 10th place which was held jointly by Texarkana and Malvern last week.

Paragould and Jonesboro retained fourth and fifth places without difficulty. Pine Bluff dropped from sixth to eighth with Fayetteville moving from seventh to sixth and Hot Springs from eighth to seventh.

Here is the way the vote went (with first place votes in parentheses):

North Little Rock (4) 83
Little Rock Central (3) 81
Fort Smith Northside (3) 77

Paragould 60
Jonesboro 55

Fayetteville 54
Hot Springs 31

Pine Bluff 15½
Greene County Tech 15

Conway 14½

cents most of the year and fell as low as nine cents on one occasion.

Disaster was averted because the contractual arrangement left producers with a profit, even though a great deal of money was lost in one or another phases of the industry.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Almost everything about a special television program called "Carol for Another Christmas" to be broadcast on ABC tonight is unusual. For one thing television writers were invited to see the program and review it in advance.

This is an almost unheard of procedure, since disparaging reviews are likely to discourage viewers. However, in concept, execution and motive, this 90-minute filmed ghost story is an extraordinary departure for commercial television.

"Carol for Another Christmas" is the first to be made under a $4-million grant by a photocopy equipment manufacturer to a non-profit foundation for the production of strong dramatic shows editorializing and explaining the work of the United Nations. Top theatrical talents—writer, director and actors — are working for minimum salaries to make them. Commercial messages will not interrupt them.

Tonight's drama was written by Rod Serling around Dickens' famous Christmas story. In this case, Ebenezer Scrooge is a contemporary tycoon named Dan Grudge, who is bitter over the death in war of his only son, Marley. Grudge is furiously isolationist, opposes the United Nations and is dedicated to the proposition of a very strong America which should "stay on our own side of the fence."

Into his baronial hall on the Christmas Eve anniversary of Marley's death comes the Cratchett-like figure of his nephew, a man of good will, seeking to change his attitude. He fails, but Grudge soon finds himself aboard a creaking ship which is transporting the dead of all wars past and carries also the "ghost of Christmas Past." The "ghost's" message: These men died because the men who govern nations stopped talking to each other and started fighting.

The program is magnificently produced and handsomely acted by Sterling Hayden, who plays Grudge, and Ben Gazzara, his nephew. Steve Lawrence, Pat Hingle and Robert Shaw are the three ghosts. Peter Sellers, with frightening humor, plays the mad demagogue of the future.

It is strong medicine and in says what it has to say in unequivocal terms. Like it or not, it is a program which the thoughtful person should not miss.

Deadline Passes Leo Still Around

WILLOW GROVE, Pa. (AP) — The deadline passed Sunday for Leo the lion to leave town. But Howard Sautter's pet still was in his heated quarters today.

Abington Township's commissioners recently passed an ordinance banning wild animals as pets. The ordinance was inspired by objections of some of Sautter's neighbors. They complained that Leo made them nervous.

Sautter said that when he receives formal notice from the township asking why Leo is still around, he will turn the matter over to his attorneys.

Sautter argues that Leo is harmless and looks harmless as lions go.

"Just because one man kills somebody, you don't outlaw all people," Sautter said. "So why should my lion go?"

Of the Seven Cities of Cibola only Zuni, N.M., has survived.

Fact

Carmine is a red or purplish-red pigment obtained from cochineal, a red dye extracted from the dried bodies of female scale insects that live in tropical and subtropical America—mainly Mexico and Central America—and feed on a species of cactus. It takes 70,000 insects to make one pound of cochineal and a 100-square mile plantation to yield 600 pounds.
